

Is There Anything Too Hard For Me?

Music by Sally Tan
Arranged by Daniel Chia

Words by Charles Tan

$\text{♩} = 60$

SOPRANO ALTO Soloist

TENOR BASS

We speak of faith in a ve-ry great God, we de-clare we trust in the Word of the Lord. But when we face pain a-long the way, we fal-ter, and feel dark and deep dis-may. We need to re-mem-ber what the Lord said, then we would not be so great-ly a-fraid. "I am the Lord," He says so plain-ly,

7

11

15

19

"Is there a-ny-thing too hard for Me?" There will be tri-als and hard-ship in life, there will be pain and mo-ments of strife. But these are meant to teach us how to pray, our heart says to seek God without delay. We need to remember what the Lord said, then 35

26

31

we would not be so greatly afraid. "I am the Lord," He says so plainly. "Is there anything too hard for Me?" Our heart is 49

40

made stronger through painful tests, we need not fear, our hearts may be at rest. We need to

No fear, our hearts may be at rest.

53

know who our Saviour is, and we will regain our joy and bliss! We need to remember what the Lord said, then we would not be so greatly afraid.

58

We would not be so greatly afraid for He is 61 retard

"I am the Lord," He says so plain-ly, "Is there a-ny-thing too hard for Me?"

Lord...